

What Are You?

Gorilla Tango Capital (GTC) is a creative microlender looking to finance projects that may have difficulty getting financing through traditional lenders.

Our mission is to give creative people and projects the financial tools they need – advances, loans, investment and other types of venture capital – to start making their creativity work for them.

What Will You Finance?

GTC realizes that access to capital from traditional lending sources for creative endeavors is difficult if not impossible.

This is where GTC comes in. GTC will take the risk on you and your project that others won't. We are looking to fund any type of creative project that has the ability to make money, or conversely, we will finance any individual or organization that has the capacity to pay back the loan from other sources.

Some examples of what we might fund:

- Live performance groups (theatre, music, dance, etc) who will shortly be getting money from ticket sales, but need additional funds immediately in order to execute the project at any point along the way.
- A musician who needs a large amount of capital all at once to finish off their record and can pay it back in small amounts of an extended period of time.
- A jeweler who needs an outlay of money to purchase materials in order to create sellable works.
- An organization with a confirmed grant that will shortly be coming in but that needs to pay bills or start a project now.
- And more! Tell us what you are trying to accomplish and we can work together to help you to get it done.

Do I Have to Pay This Back and If So How Does That Work?

GTC works as a lender not a granting agency, so yes, you do have to pay the money back.

The terms and fee for each loan will depend on a number of factors: the project, the borrowers, the time frame, etc. GTC and the borrower will work this out together.

How Do I Apply?

The first step is to contact us. We will examine each borrower and each project individually to determine what information we need from you in order to apply.

Borrowers can either apply for loans as individuals, as groups, as non-profit organizations, or as for-profit entities.
